

ENGLISH WEEK 11TH MAY

DRAGON HUNTER

Credit: Ryan Lang

- Who is this? Do they have a name? Where does the person come from? Is it his homeland?

- Why does the person have a sword?

- Where did the dragon come from? Describe the dragon's land and home.

- What kind of dragon is it? What special features or powers does it have? What is the dragon's character like?

- Why are there skeletons on the ground?

- How is the person feeling? What clues are there in the picture to tell you?

- What do you think has already happened and what will happen next?

- Write your own myth or legend inspired by this picture. Use the features checklist. Don't forget to edit - Check, Remove, Add, Improve.

MY MYTH PLANNER

Features

Remember to include:

- Interesting descriptions of your hero, mythical beast and setting.
- Lots of exciting and rich vocabulary!
- Similes and metaphors, to help your reader to imagine.
- A mythical creature with a weakness.
- A hero - what are their strengths?
- Objects to help the hero save the day.
- Obstacles that the hero has to overcome.

Checklist

Plot

- Does the plot make sense?
- Is it exciting?

Paragraphs

- Have I used paragraphs in my story?
- Have I used connecting words and phrases to show how the paragraphs link?

Description

- Have I chosen words and phrases carefully to help my reader imagine what I am describing?

Sentences

- Have I punctuated my sentences?
- Have I used a mixture of short and long sentences?