ENGLISH WEEK:18TH MAY

THE IMAGINATOR

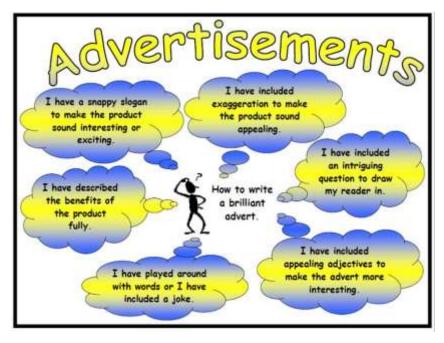

Credit: Tim O'Brien

| _ | • | e paper if you | • | nction? Write a | |
|---|---|----------------|---|-----------------|--|
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |

| • | Who made The Imaginator? |
|---|--|
| | |
| • | Who does this one belong to? Why is it here? |
| | |
| • | Are there any others? Where are they sold? |
| | |

- Use plain paper to create an advert for The Imaginator.
- Who is the target market?
- Why would they need one?
- What are its best features?
- Is your advert eye-catching and bold?
- Does it persuade people to buy an imaginator?

Make sure your advert has these features.