Reading at home.

We advise that you listen to your child read every night when possible, this may include sharing a bedtime story. Please continue to write down any books you have read together in the yellow reading record.

Out and About

Please check the main school newsletter for the list of children going 'Out and About' next week as it was cancelled this week due to sickness.

If you have any questions or concerns please do not hesitate to speak to one of us. Thank you in advance for your co-operation and support.
